SOCIAL HAPPENINGS.

The Season of 1880-81 Opens Up Well.

Things Past and to Come.

The season of greatest social enjoyment is rapidly advancing and balls and parties, dinners and suppers are taking the place of picnics, festivals and lawn socials. Prominent among the events of the past week was the ball with which the Standard club inaugurated the season of 1880-81. About sixty couples were in attendance and the evening was one of great pleasure to all. The music on this occasion was furnished by Steinhausen's splendid orchestra which is engaged for the season. Among several new pieces played, the composition of the leader was the "Standard Club" waltz-quadrille.

Every alternate Tuesday the club will hold one of its parties until the season closes in February with a grand masquerade.

The following are the committees for the season:
Reception Committee—A. Gahn, Max Meyer, A. Traynor, C. Schlack, Floor Managers—R. R. Withnell, H. Baswiz, F. Adler, John R. Manchester.

Committee of Arrangements—M. Goldsmith, Henry Pundt, A. Heller, J. R. Manchester, R. R. Withnell. ANNIVERSARIES AND WEDDINGS.

During the week just past there have been weddings and wedding anniversaries and wedding receptions without number. Most of these have been noticed, but we omitted to announce the marriage of Mr. William Rice, of Cleveland, O., and Miss Emma Elzasser, step-daughter of Mr. Fred Thum, the proprietor of the Green Tree hotel, which was celebrated at the home at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, Rev. W. A. Lyle officiating. Many presents were received from friends in all parts of the state and Wyoming. The happy pair took the Rock Island train to Chicago, whence they go to their home at Cleveland.

On Sunday evening last there was a pleasant social gathering held at the residence of Mr. Wm. Lewis, corner of Twelfth and Cass streets. The occasion was the celebration of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Lewis. A beautiful repast was spread, to which the guests did ample justice. Miss Fannie Lewis was the bride, and the wedding was a most successful one.

The Wabash morning train will leave after having the U. P. transfer to St. Louis at 9:17, instead of 10:15, as heretofore, and the Burlington evening train from Chicago will hereafter connect at the U. P. transfer with the 6 o'clock dummy train for Omaha.

RAILROAD NOTES.

Thirty-six cars of stock through today.

Seven cars of emigrants went out last night.

A number of Portuguese settlers went west yesterday to Helena, Montana.

The overland train was two hours late last night and was reported half an hour late today.

A train of twenty-five cars left the depot in this city at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, bound for Chicago. It will run at the rate of 25 miles per hour without stoppage. [Lincoln Journal.]

A special train with the officers of the B. & M. on board ran into a freight train near Humboldt on the southern division, on Wednesday night while going to Atchison. The rear car of the freight train was cut almost in two, and the engine lost its smokestack, but fortunately there were no dangerous injuries to those on the train. Mr. Touzalin, Mr. McConiff and Low Cropsey were aboard.

Passing Away.
Mr. A. R. Orchard died Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, aged 71 years. He was a native of Kentucky, and came to Omaha from Indiana in 1856, where he has resided ever since. He was one of the original organizers of the Presbyterian church, in which for many years he held the office of elder. He was an honorable and upright citizen, and was greatly respected by all who knew him. He was the father of Mr. Samuel Orchard and Mrs. Wm. Preston of this city.

Republican Rally To-Night.
A meeting will be held to-night at the Academy of Music under the auspices of the Garfield and Arthur clubs, which will be addressed by General Thayer, who has just returned from doing campaign work in Indiana. The club will sing, and a general good time may be expected. Ladies are especially invited.

Iowa Soldiers.
There will be a meeting of the Iowa soldiers of the late war, residents of the city of Omaha, on Tuesday evening, at 8 p. m., at the office of Gen. G. M. O'Brien, room 5, Union block, to take steps for the formation of an organization of Iowa soldiers in Nebraska.

Attention, Co. H.
All members are commanded to be present at drill Monday evening. A competent drill sergeant will conduct the drill. J. N. VALENTINE, Captain.

Irish-American Republican Club.
The executive committee of the National Irish American republican club, of Douglas county, met at the board of trade rooms, Saturday evening, pursuant to notice, George M. O'Brien in the chair.

On motion Ed. O'Sullivan was elected secretary of the committee. The following resolution was offered: Resolved, That the members of this committee be and are hereby instructed to take immediate steps to ascertain the number of citizens of Irish birth and parentage within their respective wards and the country precincts eligible to membership in the club, and to enroll the names thereof and furnish a list of the same to the secretary of this committee at the earliest possible date. Adopted.

It was moved and carried that the regular meeting of this committee be on Saturday evening of each week at the board of trade rooms in this city until further ordered.

There being no further business the committee adjourned.

Ed. O'SULLIVAN, Secretary.

EARLY CLOSING.

A. CRUICKSHANK & CO.

begs to apprise their friends and patrons that, on and after Monday, October 11th, they will close their place of business at 6:30 p. m. sharp, Saturdays excepted. In arriving at this conclusion, we have been guided solely by a desire to extend to our employees rest and recreation. We are sure the ladies of Omaha will sustain us in this essential move, and that they will consult their own interests by making their purchases of dry goods in daylight.

Thanking our many friends and patrons for the large and increasing patronage, we shall continue to maintain the reputation of our establishment by introducing the latest novelties, and when a lady can purchase with full confidence a good article at the lowest possible price. Respectfully yours,

A. CRUICKSHANK & CO.

A Beautiful Collection.
Over a year ago Mr. Julius Meyer, who was at the time in business still, ordered a lot of elegant Turkish rugs and mats. Owing to a delay on the part of custom house officials they were never received until yesterday. He has opened them out at Max Meyer's, and will keep them a week or so to exhibit them to his friends, before shipping them to New York for sale. They are magnificent specimens of that class of rare and much prized work, and well worth going to see as curiosities.

St. Julian Outdone.
Mr. S. B. Hathaway, the well-known hunter and gun-store man, made a bag Saturday with Moose, Winslow, Wakefield and Leeder, of the Fifth ward, that he could drive his old black Morgan horse, Charlie, who has turned 17 years, from Hossey's hotel in Florence, to his store, six and a quarter miles, in thirty-five minutes. Notwithstanding the odds against him in the strong south wind, he accomplished the feat in thirty-two minutes and had time to drive to Leeder's place, on Chicago and 12th, drink a glass of beer and return, having made in all nearly seven miles. He won the money and didn't hurt the horse a bit.

Accident in a Cellar.
A German laborer, whose name we could not learn, engaged in excavating a cellar beneath Salsfield's restaurant, on Thirteenth street, had his head terribly crushed this morning by the caving in of the wall, the earth pinning him up against a wheel of the wagon, which was backed down for loading. It was at first feared that he was seriously injured, but we learn this afternoon that it is not so bad as thought to be at the time.

Life prolonged by going to Good Templar Social, Tuesday evening, October 12.
